

Sarah Goldberg

Program Leader

Experience

Sarah focuses on achieving high performance through effective communication and self-awareness, making her a natural fit for the Decker team.

Sarah works with mid to senior level executives to inspire high performance through self-awareness and strategic leadership strategies. In addition to executive coaching, Sarah designs and develops custom workshops and facilitates brainstorming, branding, and strategy discussions amongst senior level executives. She has led trainings for many of Decker's clients, including Alvarez Marsal, AT&T, Brocade, Charles Schwab, Cisco, Direct Energy, EMC, Experian, Fiserv, Riverbed, Seagate, SendGrid, Stryker, VMWare and Wizards of the Coast.

With expertise in leadership development, sales training, team building and individual growth, Sarah became an executive coach 12 years ago. Previously, she was a director at The Walt Disney Company and the founder of West Coast Advantage Inc., an advertising sales firm with clients like Apple, Gap, Microsoft and The Hearst Corporation.

Sarah is certified by The Coaches Training Institute, in addition to being a certified Myers Briggs (MBTI)[®] facilitator and a Program Manager for Women Unlimited. Along with her husband and two teenage daughters, Sarah lives in the San Francisco Bay area.

Education

Sarah holds a B.A. in Semiotics and Communication from Brown University.
