

Korey Riggs

Program Leader

Experience

The stunning transformations by lunchtime were what drew Korey to Decker! He witnessed participants of the CTI program made tangible strides in their speaking ability in only three hours. Korey immediately saw the elegant simplicity and power of the Decker method and knew he found a home.

Korey has worked with many of Decker's top clients including: Allstate, CSC CorpTax, Novartis, Nutanix, SCIEX and Stryker.

An international business consultant who specializes in companies doing business in Latin America, Korey is passionate about the cultural aspects of communication and enjoys coaching company leaders as they navigate entry into new markets. He recently moved to New York City after living in Mexico for eight years where he worked as President and CEO of Los Cabos Children's Foundation, conducted a weekly radio show and most recently served as a Director for El Dorado Golf & Beach Club. Korey is a motivator, a teacher and a student who has a voracious appetite for learning.

Korey enjoys sparking people's interests and has worked in training and development through various roles at General Motors, MGM Mirage and the Discovery Land Company. When Korey is not engaged with a client, he can be found in a yoga class or trekking up a mountain somewhere in the world.

Education

Korey holds a Masters of Business Administration in International Management from Arizona State University.
